

Any diminution of the sparse "Do Not Call" regulations will serve only the few for whom the enterprise of unsolicited disturbance of privacy seeking citizens. If for only this reason I submit retention and or strengthening of the privacy provisions concerning telecommunications and their potential for abuse.